

PULITZER

AMSTERDAM

PULITZER AMSTERDAM - FAMILIES FACT SHEET -

Exploring somewhere new and creating meaningful memories is even more special when shared with the ones you love. Pulitzer Amsterdam proudly welcomes travelers of all ages, and the Pulitzer Family Program makes travelling with children comfortable and enjoyable for the entire family.

Accommodation

The newly re-designed 45-year-old hotel's 225 guestrooms and suites includes:

- One Family Suite
- Three dedicated Family Rooms
- 16 rooms with connecting doors.

The spacious Family Suite sleeps a family of four in a beautiful split-level apartment with canal views. The suite has charming design elements and sumptuous furnishings that blend the hotel's rich past and contemporary present. The Family Suite includes:

- Two bedrooms
- Two bathrooms
- Dining area
- Lounge

Each Family Room also sleeps a family of four and is split over two levels.

PULITZER

AMSTERDAM

Children's programming

Complimentary children's programming is available for children of all ages and is offered based on age group. It includes natural skincare amenities for babies, personalized surprises and activity books for toddlers and kids. Additional products and services are available upon request including a baby bath, baby monitors and bottle heaters, as well as nanny services and board games.

For those travelling with older children aged 13-18 years, rooms are equipped with Pulitzer Amsterdam travel diaries to allow younger guests to document their stay and note down their favorite moments of their visit to the Dutch capital.

Dining

Pulitzer Amsterdam has a passion for culinary craftsmanship and its restaurant, Jansz., offers a specially curated kids menu with dishes such as:

- Spaghetti with meatballs in a marinara sauce
- Grilled chicken with glazed carrots and bimi

Children will be entertained with a coloring page that they can turn into the hostess at the end of the night in exchange for a gift from Mr. Jansz.'s treasure box.

Families joining Jansz. Family Sundays can enjoy the perfect end to their weekend with an early dinner, entirely dedicated to children. Children can head to the Copper Rooms in the hotel to be treated to films, balloons, coloring pages and toys.

#JanszFamilySundays take place every last Sunday of the month from 4:30pm - 6:30pm.

Pause at Pulitzer is Pulitzer Amsterdam's bright garden café which invites guests of all ages to recharge, serving drinks and light dishes throughout the day. The space occupies prime spot in the hotel's unique inner gardens, a park-like hideaway with unique design aspects include four large chair swings and hand carved wooden rocking horses.

PULITZER

AMSTERDAM

Once the little ones are in bed, the chic Pulitzer's Bar offers the perfect retreat for parents to sip on classic cocktails and the finest beverages whilst enjoying the beautiful views over the canal.

Exploring Amsterdam

Pulitzer Amsterdam is ideally located in the heart of the canal district, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Family-friendly attractions including the ARTIS Amsterdam Royal Zoo, Madame Tussauds, The National Maritime Museum, NEMO Science Museum and Van Gogh Museum are within easy reach. The fashionable Nine Streets, the quaint shops of Jordaan, the flower market and the Royal Palace are also a short distance away.

Pulitzer Amsterdam's concierge team love nothing more than bringing guests a little closer to the Amsterdam they love.

Experiences offered by Pulitzer Amsterdam's concierge include:

- Daily guided canal tours on The Tourist, Pulitzer Amsterdam's classic salon boat that provides an unforgettable Amsterdam adventure (€38 per person).
- Magical walking tours that allow guests to see the city through the eyes of a local.
- Limousine service to take guests in style to the best spots in the Dutch capital and beyond.

Family-friendly destination recommendations from Pulitzer Amsterdam's concierge team:

Pllek

Constructed from used shipping containers and covered by a high curving roof, Pllek is the perfect trendy lunch spot for families. The front of the restaurant opens out onto a beautiful view complete with picnic benches and a 'beach' created from gravel. If you visit Pllek on a Sunday, you and your little ones can enjoy the restaurant's kids' program "Ruige Rakkers" which boasts a host of activities including yoga and workshops covering dance, circus skills and theatrical performance. To get to Pllek, take the free ferry from Centraal Station to NDSM Wharf (about 20 minutes) and follow the signs for the five-minute walk to Pllek.

PULITZER

AMSTERDAM

De Kleine Eland

If you fancy treating your little ones to a visit to a toyshop while you're in Amsterdam, De Kleine Eland must be your first stop! Full of traditional toys like wooden music boxes and dolls houses, De Kleine Eland has everything that you could think of and is a true paradise for children and parents alike. What nicer thing to do than wander around the shop and relive your childhood while watching your children's faces light up with joy?

Climb the Wester Church

The Westerkerk Toren - the Westerkerk Church Bell Tower - is steeped in history and boasts the best panoramic views of central Amsterdam. Climbing up is a must-do for families visiting Amsterdam; at 40m high, the viewing platform is approximately half-way up the tower.

Minimum age - six.

www.westerkerk.nl

My little Van Gogh

Allow your budding artist to explore their creativity with a one-hour session at My Little Van Gogh. Children aged from 12 months to five years are encouraged to discover and create through play and exploration, and can use child-friendly art materials to create their own masterpiece. Sessions encourage children to use their senses and creativity while developing new skills such as decision making.

Single session - €22.

www.clubmylittlevangogh.com

National Maritime Museum

The National Maritime Museum educates visitors on how the sea has shaped Dutch culture and gives children the chance to learn about The Netherlands' 500 years of Maritime history through interactive exhibitions. Pay a visit to The Tale of the Whale exhibition which teaches you about how the largest creature on Earth has evolved and changed through the ages. The exhibition also touches on the dangers facing this endangered species. Children can also walk through the tummy of a whale and take in its enormity in all its glory!

www.hetscheepvaartmuseum.nl

PULITZER

AMSTERDAM

About Pulitzer Amsterdam

The newly restored Pulitzer Amsterdam is a luxury hotel set within 25 interlinked 17th and 18th century canal houses, in one of Amsterdam's chicest neighborhoods. Blending traditional and modern Dutch craftsmanship and service, the hotel offers 225 guest rooms, a tranquil inner garden, meeting and event spaces as well as an authentic restaurant and bar that showcase local tastes. Overlooking the Prinsengracht and Keizersgracht canals, the hotel is located in the heart of Amsterdam's historic city center, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Close to Dam Square, Pulitzer Amsterdam is within easy reach of the Rijksmuseum, Stedelijk Museum, the Van Gogh Museum and The Anne Frank House. The fashionable Nine Streets, the quaint shops of Jordaan, the flower market and the Royal Palace are also a short distance away, to explore on foot, by bike or by boat.

Pulitzer Amsterdam is a member of the Preferred Hotels & Resorts LVX Collection. All guests of Hotel Pulitzer are eligible to enroll in the iPrefer guest loyalty program, which extends points redeemable for cash-value Reward Certificates, elite status, and special benefits such as complimentary Internet to members upon every stay at more than 550 participating Preferred Hotels & Resorts locations worldwide.

Social Media

Twitter: www.twitter.com/hotelpulitzer

Instagram: www.instagram.com/pulitzer.amsterdam

Facebook: www.facebook.com/Hotel.Pulitzer.Amsterdam

Media Enquiries

Sophie Janssen – PR Manager

E: press@pulitzeramsterdam.com

T: +31 (0) 20 523 52 35